DELF/DALF PROCEDURES FOR NON-RESIDENT APPLICANTS IN LAOS

A candidate is not allowed to register several times at the same time for an examination of the same level (different declinations or not). The candidate must wait for the results of the first registration before considering retaking the same exam: “The candidate has the right to sit an exam as many times as he wishes until obtains the diploma, provided that he has obtained the results before registering again. » [https://www.ciep.fr/delf-dalf/droits-devoirs-candidats]

The DELF-DALF is an exam that evaluates individual performance that cannot be reduced to the memorization of response patterns; therefore, a text memorized and identified in several copies at the time of correction will be considered as plagiarism and will justify referral to the Disciplinary Commission of France Education International.
